Communion will be on Palm Sunday

We will celebrate communion in a new way next Sunday, March 25. Right after the morning worship service, every believer in the congregation is invited to the fellowship hall. Those who attend will immediately go to the footwashing stations and may participate or observe that symbol of cleansing and humble service. Then we will enjoy a light meal together, the love feast. The communion culminates with the eating of the communion bread and the drinking of the cup, commemorating the sacrifice of Jesus for our sins. The service will be shorter than usual because we will have already spent time in worship. We hope that more people will be able to attend this service because of the convenient schedule.
