The survey says...

(changes we are making in response to the survey)

We are scheduling special music every Sunday.

We are reporting Executive Council information on the website.

New pictures for the directory

Monica Barker is a professional photographer. She has set up a special space outside the front of the church and will take new pictures for EVERYONE for the directory. If your picture is not in the directory now please stop at Monica’s place and get a new picture and give us an address and phone number. We need new pictures of everyone!

Guest Speaker

We are excited to have Dr. John Shultz, former president of Ashland Theological Seminary, here to preach the sermon this morning.

The sermon-based growth groups will not meet this Thursday and will resume next week.
