

Sermon: Inexpressible joy

A new birth

1 Peter 1:3-12

God's mercy gives us a new birth.

Our new birth is into a living hope.

Hope is made certain by our faith.

Our certain hope is to receive an eternal inheritance.

Inexpressible and glorious joy

Our faith in that inheritance is the key to true joy.

It is our one treasure that doesn't fade away.

Eternity changes everything, including this life.

You never know your faith until you need it.
